School of Law — Bloomington

Submissions:

ILA is published every Monday. Information and articles for ILA should be submitted by Thursday at 1pm for inclusion in Monday's edition. Submissions can be given to Leslie Jackson in Room 240, put in Leslie Jackson's box in the faculty mailroom on the second floor or placed in the envelope by the bulletin board across from the elevator on the ground floor. In addition, submissions can be sent through campus E-mail to LESLIEJACKSON@law.indiana.edu

March 22 Feminism and Globalization Symposium

The Indiana Journal of Global Legal Studies presents this year's conference, entitled "Feminism and Globalization: The Impact of the Global Economy on Women and Feminist Theory. This symposium will deal with the intersection of global market forces and feminism from a number of perspectives. The Conference will present three panels.

The first panel, presented by Saskia Sassen, Professor, School of Urban Planning, Columbia University, will consider the way labor markets are responding to the entry of women into these markets around the world. Specifically, it will consider the ways of understanding the role of gender in today's global economy.

The second panel, presented by Zillah Eisenstein, Professor, Department of Politics, Ithaca College, will consider the impact of privatization and globalization on women. How do women's new paths of entry into the labor market reflect or affect their political integration?

The third panel, presented by Aihwa Ong, Associate Professor, Anthropology, University of California-Berkeley, will consider these questions: How has feminism addressed globalization? Does the globalization of the economy, politics, and law provide ground for advancing feminist theory? How do feminisms around the world assess the current possibilities?

The conference begins at 8:45 a.m. in the Moot Court Room, with panels beginning at 9 a.m., 11 a.m., and 2 p.m. Please stop by the Dean's Office, Room 240, if you would like a conference brochure.

NEWS FROM THE FACULTY

Fred Cate spoke on March 14 to the Indiana Small Libraries Association about intellectual freedom.

David Fidler attended the 1996 Symposium at the Walther Schucking Institut fur Internationales Rechts in Kiel, Germany from March 6-8, hosted by our own Jost Delbruck. The topic of the Symposium was "New Trends in International Law-Making: International Legislation in the Public Interest."

NEWS FROM STUDENT AFFAIRS OFFICE

REGISTRATION FOR SUMMER

Summer Registration will be held on Monday, March 25, in the Recorder's Office. Attached to this ILA is an updated, final schedule (with notes) for your guidance. Please note that the dates for some courses have been changed from what was noted on the previous schedule. Students taking B710 (Independent Clinical Projects) and B706 (Directed Research Projects) should register on time even if the necessary paperwork is not completed.

REGISTRATION FOR FALL SEMESTER

Fall Registration for rising 3Ls will be on Monday, April 1, and for rising 2Ls on Wednesday, April 3. However, Joint Degree students must see our Recorder on Thursday or Friday, March 28 or 29; non Joint Degree students wishing to take a course outside the law school should see Dean Fromm on those same days.

Final Fall Schedules will be available in about a week, as will course description packets.

LOANS FOR SUMMER

Remember that the Financial Aid Certification form (available in room 024) must appropriately register the proper number of hours you are taking in each University Summer Session in order to get loans. If you have changed your plans regarding attending summer school and have already submitted the FAC, then pick up another one, write "amended" on it, and submit a one with the correct credit hour permutation.

LONDON PROGRAM - SPRING OF 1997

Here is the list of courses being offered in the London Program for next year, for those planning to attend:

Arts and Entertainment Law, British Legal System, Clinical Externship, Comparative Constitutional Law, Conflict of Laws, Constitutional Law II (Civil and Political Rights), Education Law, European Law, European Community Law, Law and Literature, and Medieval English Law. All courses are for 3 credit hours, except for British Legal Systems, which is for only 1 credit hour. Applications for the London Program will not be available for students until the first day of fall classes. Completed applications, for priority consideration, must be submitted a week later.

PRACTITIONER-IN-RESIDENCE ON MARCH 25

Ms. Alecia DeCoudreaux, currently Executive Director at Eli Lilly and Company Research Laboratories, Planning, and Scientific Administration, will be a practitioner-in-residence on Monday, March 25. Having held many other legal and legally related positions with Lilly, she has had a most interesting career. She will be attending some relevant classes and will be available from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. at an open meeting for students and for "one on ones" at a reception. More information will be forthcoming in next week's ILA.

NEWS FROM CAREER SERVICES

Career Options II: Litigation and Bankruptcy Law
Tuesday, March 19, 12:15 p.m., Room 123.

Prepare for Fall recruiting by exploring two areas of law practice. Mr. Alan Slagel of Shesky & Froelich in Chicago, IL and Ms. Paula Cardoza of Ancel & Dunlap in Indianapolis will discuss their fields of law practice, litigation and bankruptcy.

Career Options III: Arbitration, Politics & Foundation Leadership,
Thursday, March 21. 12:15 p.m.; Room 121.

Ever wonder what are some of the exciting things you can do with a law degree beyond practicing at a law firm? Then we encourage you to come listen to three IU alumni talk about their career paths in and around the law. Meet Cynthia Stanley, an Arbitrator, Matt Pierce, Minority Attorney for the Indiana House of Representatives, and Beth Tevlin, Executive Director of the Wabash Valley Community Foundation.

JOBS/INTERNSHIPS/B710's in Children's Law -- March 21, Room 214, Noon - 1:05

Practitioners who do children's law will describe their work and give job-search suggestions. We will share and expand an extensive list of opportunities to work in children's law and people to contact. Bring a resume. Drink & desserts provided. RSVP's appreciated, but not required.

CHILDREN'S LAW DAY

Where can you find Stake on the "Validity of the contract in The Little Mermaid"; Hoffmann on "Reasons for Punishment"; and Dau-Schmidt on "Wrongful Discharge"? At Children's Law Day, of course! Students, faculty & staff are invited to bring children age 3-midteens to learn about what goes on in Law School including age-appropriate classes, tours of the law school and lunch in the cafeteria. If you have not already done so, PLEASE RSVP to Martha Marion (1L) to volunteer your services or to bring a child.

TELETHON VOLUNTEERS

If you have not already been contacted to place informational calls to admitted students and would like to do so, please stop by the Admissions Office, Room 230, for names and instructions sometime this week.

HOUSING BOARD

All information posted on the housing board before spring break has been removed. If you would like to post housing information, please stop by the Admissions Office, Room 230. All notices not posted on housing cards will be removed from the housing board.

VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT FOR LEGAL WORK FOR INDIGENT

Legal Services is looking for students willing to do legal research on an as-needed basis for various LSO offices around the state. You could do the research here; a supervising attorney at LSO will be in contact with you during your research. Depending on the project, it might be able to arrange B 710 credit for participation. See Dean Robel if interested.

Graduation Display

3Ls: Please remember to turn in your photo/memorabilia display contribution to the Library as soon as possible. Check-in forms must be filled out for each item and are available at the Library Reference Desk. Thank you.

World Wide Web Training for ILs

First year students, please come to the Reference Office to sign up for an hour of web training THIS WEEK. The sessions will introduce you to Netscape, the law school's homepage, legal resources on the net, and a variety of search tools and engines.

Indiana Law Annotated

Additional Internet training open to all law students will be offered during the first two weeks of April, as part of the Law Library's Jump Start program.

Lexis Law Day

Lexis will be demonstrating new features and products on Wednesday, March 20, from 10:30--1:30 in the lobby outside the library. Look for the refreshments and freebies!

Need a Part-Time Job?

Westlaw will be hiring student associates for the coming school year. Please drop off resumes to the Career Office. If you have any questions, contact Juliet Casper, Electronic Services Librarian.

Attention ILs:

A videotape that describes the fundamentals of oral argument will be shown Tuesday, March 19 and Friday, March 22. Both showings will be at 12:15 in room 121. You are required to attend one showing.

EVENTS, LECTURES

ANNUAL LAW & SOCIETY SYMPOSIUM, March 29th

On Friday, March 29th the Law & Society Program will hold its annual national symposium, in the Moot Court Room. This year the topic is "Law & 'Civil Society,'" brochures giving the schedule and other details of the day-long symposium will be put in all student and faculty mailboxes on March 25th. The symposium will include scholars in law, sociology, history, and political theory-- from the Bloomington campus, and from around the nation. Steve Conrad is the principal organizer of the symposium; and students in both his current courses have been told a good deal about the symposium. Don't hesitate to ask Steve Conrad and/or his students about this upcoming interdisciplinary event, generously funded by the Office of Dean Aman, and also the College and the Graduate School.

SCHEDULE NOTES

1. Classes will not meet on Monday, Memorial Day, May 27, or on Thursday, July 4.
2. Ms. Rosemary Spalding is the named partner in the law firm, Spalding & Watson, of Indianapolis. The firm concentrates in environmental facilitation and mediation. Earlier in her career she worked for Barnes & Thornburg, Price & Barker, and then was Chief Counsel and Deputy Commissioner for Legal Affairs of the Indiana Department of Environmental Management. Her classes will meet on eight consecutive Wednesday evenings, starting on June 5, and also will meet on two Monday evenings, to be announced, for a total of 10 class meetings. The nature of the take home exam will be discussed at the first class.
3. Legal Profession and Remedies and Equity are writing courses that satisfy the Advanced Writing graduation requirement. Students not having satisfied the requirement will get priority. Enrollment is limited.
4. There will be a final trial project (no exam) at the end of the course.
5. The Community Legal Clinic and Criminal Prosecution Clinic are primarily for rising 3Ls; the Federal Courts Clinic gives priority to 3Ls.
6. Registration for all summer courses will be Monday, March 25, in the Recorder's Office. Do not register through the University system. You may register late, however, on the same day a course starts, provided space is available, by paying a $44.00 late fee.
7. There is a University first summer session (May 14 - June 20) and a second session (June 21 - August 9). As is indicated on the reverse side, most of our courses are in the second session. Registration in the proper session insures that you receive the proper loans if borrowing. Please note that your loans are not triggered by your registration, rather they are determined by the number of credits you designated on your Financial Aid Certification form. Submit an amended form to correct information.
8. In order to be eligible for a loan during a University session, you must be registered for a minimum of two credits for that session.
9. If only registering for a four credit B710 (Independent Clinical Project), you must split it into 2 credits in each session if you want loans for the whole summer. Also, if only registering for a B710, your activity, technology, and health fees will be waived since you will not be on campus. Also, your living expense budget can be increased if in a large city. But you must tell the Recorder when registering about your plans.
10. Fee Payment: A late payment charge of $44 will be assessed to the accounts of all students whose payments are not received in the Office of the Bursar by May 10, 1996, for first summer session or by June 10, 1996, for second summer session. If you have not received a bill by late April, for first summer session or by late May, for second summer session, please contact the Office of the Bursar at (812)855-2632 or by e-mail to: bursar@indiana.edu. Failure to receive the bill will not be accepted as a reason for missing the payment deadline(s).
11. The 1996 Summer Budget (Law), if taking the minimum of 2 credits per session is:

	1st Session (6 weeks)	2nd Session (8 weeks)	Both
In-State	1,888	2,380	4,268
Out-of-State	2,464	2,956	5,420
12. If you decide not to attend a class after registering, you must notify the Recorder to avoid fees being assessed.
